I beseech our Churche Prelie, and whosoever else
 Line of Bishops, Ministers, Preachers, and other Servants of Christ, O omnipotent, and Eternal God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker and Preserver both of Heaven and Earth, O Lord, with our Bathers, we have committed iniquity, and done Wickedly against Therefore we do openly confess, that by thy Rigorous Judgement we are justly Punished, and rightly deserve that Barbarous and unmerciful Nation, the implacable enemies of our Good, overthrew schools, Churches, and Common wealths, make unmerciful vock of the innocent Multitude, and carry miserable Men from the sweet Bosoms of thy dear Friends into a slavery more gryous than Death.

To the Kinge of the Earth.

O God, it is thou which repellest us, yet we beseech thee confound us not before the Nations for our sins, nor suffer us to turn our backs upon our Enemies, to that they which hate us, spoil our Goods.

Neither suffer us to be eaten up like Sheep, nor scatter us among the Heathen.

Let us not become an open shame to our Enemies, nor a scorn and by-word unto them that are round about us.

Wherefore in these mischievous Wars, and in the midst of our factual Punishment, we fly unto Thee, saying, Help us, O God of our Salvation, for the Glory of thy Name; O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins for thy Name sake.

O deal not with us after our sins, neither reward us after our iniquities.

Pour out thine Indignation upon the Heathen that know Thee not, and upon such Kingdoms which call not on thy Name:
That all Nations may know the Vengeance of the Blood of thy Servants that is shed.

Consider the mortal Threatnings of our Enemies, that they may be hindered from exercising their Tyranny upon us.

Keo from our Neck the Yoke of Antichristian bondage, and repeat the triumphs of all former labour spent and made Havoc of the Church; to abolish the Detestable Prayers, and pure Religion; and to bring in Idolatry, Error, and Blasphemous Ceremonies.

Defend our Church, Policies, and Inhabiting Places.
Suffer not our Towns and Cities to be taken into Denys hands, and other Bloody Nations which have been thicke, and in extremity.

Nones, that they may be Teach the Hand of God to stand in the Earth, in them an invincible Courage of Mind, that can never be quenched the Zeal of thy Religion, body, Warlike, Laney, without which every thing, Ecclesiasticall, Civil, Moral, & Social, ob the world, will be lost.
While thou the Hand of God dost fight in the cause of Religion, and Truth, and Justice, success will be thine, though opposition be great, but if thou forsakes the cause of Right, and Justice, the contrary is not moved by thine arm, and hand, for it is not in man's power to turn from Man delivered by Ignorance, and Error, to the Power of Heaven.

At thy rebuke, O Lord, both the Chariots and Horses fall down.
Thou wilt take away the Courage of Princes, and art Terrible to the Kings of the Earth.

O be thou our help in trouble, for vain is the help of Men.
Through thee we shall do valiantly, for thou wilt tread our Enemies under our Feet, and make them consume in thy sight, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Daily Prayer for the Perpetual Happiness of Our Most Gracious King and Queen: King William and Queen Mary

O Almighty God, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, in thine Hands is all Power both in Heaven and Earth, that confirment Kingdoms, and again dost alter them according to thine Heavenly Pleasure. We Praise thee, We Magnifie thee, We Exalt thine Holy Name, for that it hath pleased thee to appoint over us such a Most Gracious King and Queen which doth concur with Truth, and rule with Wisdom.

Grant them, we beseeche thee, much Joy, and much Happiness: And deliver not their Majesties into the hands of their enemies.

Rule thou their Minds and Wills, that they may serve thee always in Fear, and rejoice in Trembling.

Let them maintain and imbrace pure Religion, and defend their People in the Profession of Christ's Gospel against all Errors and Superstition whatsoever.

Give them Wisdom and Understanding to do such things as are grateful in thy sight, profitable for us their Subjects, and hurtful to none.

O God, eternal Father, hear the Petitions of our King and Queen in all their troubles; the Name of Christ our Saviour glori-fie them, and the comfortable aide of the Holy Spirit uphold them noward for evermore.

Be mindful of them for their good, give to them according to their Hearts desire, and prosper all their Purposes, that we may rejoice in thy Salvation, and Triumph in the Name of God.

Bless them, Lord, evermore, that we may know that their Protector is the Clouds.

Harken

Hearken unto them from thine Holy Mountain by thy mighty right hand will bring salvation; oh lift up our souls.

For though home and hill-hoofed, and dainty, is the land which will we remember the Name of our God?—

They shall fall, and be overcome, but we courageously will prefer.

O Lord, protect their Majesties, hear us when we call upon thee Save our King and Queen, O merciful God, in despite of their Enemies, which either secretly or openly go about to bring Lives to the Grave, and their Glory to the Dust.
For if such be their private Enemies, and preserve

Banish from their Country all their private Enemies, and preserve them evermore from disturbing Friends.

Give them loving and loyall Subjects and Friends when open and secret Enemies both by sea and Land.

Grant this, O most merciful Father, for thy dear Son our Saviour Christ his sake. Amen.
